DUCKS

WE SIMPLY GUARANTEE THE BEST
DUCK HUNTING IN ARGENTINA

///

The hunt takes place both in rivers and lagoons, where we have elevated blinds above water level to provide complete stability for your shot.

Your guide will set the perfect scene, using fixed and mobile decoys, as well as callers, offering assistance at every moment.

We focus on delivering the best duck hunting experience in Argentina, along with an incredible bird quota.

PARTRIDGES

HUNTING WHIT POINTING DOGS

Partridge hunting takes place in natural grasslands or alfalfa fields, where they are found in large numbers.

You will begin hunting just 10 minutes away from our hunting lodge. The hunt is carried out with pointing dogs that, once they locate the partridge, will flush it out when you're ready, allowing you to take your shot.

For many, it's one of the most beautiful and thrilling hunts.

FOREST PARTRIDGE

A HUNT IN THE FOREST

Our lodge stands out as one of the few hunting grounds that offers the opportunity to hunt forest partridges alongside all other available game birds in Argentina.

Hunting this species holds a special appeal for hunters, as it is the only bird in Argentina hunted with dogs and in the forest.

Its remarkable flight agility through the trees makes it an extremely challenging species for any hunter.

DOVES

IMAGINE A PLACE
WHERE YOU CAN FIRE OVER
2.000 SHOTS A DAY

SEASON:
MAY TO

When it comes to dove hunting, we know that Argentina is the perfect place where millions of doves gather, offering the possibility of more than 3,000 shots per day.

Rancho Salvaje Safari is a leading company for hunters seeking a unique dove hunting adventure, with renowned destinations located between the borders of Córdoba and La Pampa (Argentina).

The abundance of these birds and the intensity of the activity provide an unparalleled experience for the most demanding hunters.

A remarkable example is the current record of 3,000 consecutive shots in one day by French hunter Eric Devienne.

PIGEONS

HUNT PIGEONS WITH
DECOYS AS IF YOU WERE HUNTING DUCKS

Pigeon hunting, which bears more resemblance to duck hunting than traditional pigeon shooting, has become a favorite among numerous hunters.

Rancho Salvaje Safari takes pride in offering you the opportunity to live this thrilling experience in the country's finest areas. Our 12 specially prepared feedlots surrounded by forests provide an unparalleled setting to pursue these abundant birds.

During the hunt, you will strategically position yourself in our blinds, where we use both common and mobile decoys to attract the pigeons. This tried-and-true technique allows for precise shots at distances of less than 20 meters. The combination of our generous pigeon quotas and their abundance in our hunting area guarantees an unforgettable experience
